Information Management Policy

International Islamic University
Malaysia (IIUM)

1.0 POLICY STATEMENTS

IIUM is committed to managing information, records and data as valuable institutional assets which are created, used and shared effectively.

1.1 The University will:

- 1.1.1 foster and promote a culture of information management;
- 1.1.2 maximise the potential value and opportunities presented by the University's information assets; and
- 1.1.3 maintain and protect its information assets.

1.2 The University shall have processes and systems so that:

- 1.2.1 access to information related to the University's business functions and activities is reliable and trustworthy;
- 1.2.2 information may be shared; and
- 1.2.3 the University complies with all legislative and regulatory requirements.

2.0 OBJECTIVE

This policy aims to govern the University's creation, maintenance, retention and disposal of its information and records so that it can manage its information appropriately, maximise the operational and strategic value of the information it holds, and comply with relevant legislation.

3.0 APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to the University Community, including University management members, staff, students and all persons participating in university business or activities, whether as visitors, auditors, service providers, contractors or volunteers who manage IIUM information.

4.0 SCOPE

- 4.1 The scope of this policy covers all University information that is created, received or maintained by the University in the course of carrying out its business, including the carrying out of academic and research activities, and the fulfilment of compliance with any regulatory requirements.
- 4.2 The information may be in any format or medium, including hardcopy, equipment, electronic documents, emails, texts and social media channels. It may also be stored, managed or hosted elsewhere so agreements of this nature should ensure such arrangements comply with this policy.

- 4.3 A small proportion of the University's information may be selected for permanent preservation in the University archives to be available for historical research and to give a lasting record of the University's business.

5.0 IMPLEMENTATION AND NON-COMPLIANCE

- 5.1 The University Community and all persons participating in university business or activities as per stated in clause "3.0 Applicability", shall agree that their data will be processed and used by the University. The University shall observe proper standards to collect, store, distribute, archive and dispose all the data as per stated in clause "6.0 Related Policies, Standards, Procedures and Guidelines".
- 5.2 The Chief Digital Officer (CDO) holds the responsibility for the implementation of this policy and shall take necessary actions in the event of violation of this policy. Alleged or suspected violations of the "Information Management Policy" should be reported to the CDO. Non-compliance with this policy is subject to appropriate disciplinary or legal action by the University authority. The CDO is also responsible for the formulation and maintenance of this policy.
